The Cardinals' inability to hit "Her" Schmidt, Brooklyn's midget twirler, lost them yesterday's game by a score of 5 to 1.

Throughout the game the little Brooklyn "wonder" had the Cardinals fooled, and he kept them busy engaged popping up easy chances to the in or outfield.

While the Cardinals were assisting the Brooklyn batters to strengthen their fielding averages, the cohorts of Hanlon were unmercifully pounding the curves of Mike O'Neill to every spot on the green.

In fact, O'Neill's foolishness in trying to push the sphere over the middle of the home plate while the Brooklyn batters defended the situation with hundred-pound bats resulted in his complete undoing, and at the end of the fifth period Donovan ordered O'Neill to do bench duty.

As O'Neill was "sent to the bench," he was "sent to the bench" by the Cardinals, he cheerfully wended his way to the bench in as welcome a promenade as "Sir" Michael has taken this season.

O'Neill was succeeded by "Bridge" Currie, who let the "Bridge-Jumpers" down with one hit and no runs during the fourth and fifth periods.

Currie's clever work in the box, however, availed the Cardinals nothing, for five runs had crossed the plate before he began pitching "WOODPILE OF BATS."

What rapped the fans more than anything else was the fact that the Brooklyn only used four bats, while the Cardinals had a woodpile in front of their bench.

On his very first trip to the plate Jack Doyle selected a bat that must have been loaded with soap, for he struck O'Neill with a first ball.

SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.

Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, eruptions, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints. It is a miserable disease and terrible in almost every instance to some family blood taint. Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.

No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the deteriorated blood, makes it rich and pure and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. The deposit of tubercular matter in the joints and glands is carried off as soon as the blood is restored to a normal condition, and the sores, eruptions, and other symptoms of Scrofula disappear.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and harmless; an ideal blood purifier and tonic that removes all blood taint and builds up weak constitutions. Our physicians will advise without charge, all who write us about their case. Book mailed free.
